Summer Safety and COVID-19

As the weather continues to warm (and warm…and warm), people are looking for ways to enjoy the weather while protecting their loved ones from COVID-19. Finding accurate information can be difficult, so Werner Medical Library has compiled some evidence-based sources to help you stay safe while getting some sun.

- Errands and going out. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
- COVID-19 summer safety strategies. Lippincott Nursing Center.
- Summer safety amid COVID-19. American Red Cross.
- Day Care, Camp, Hugging, and Play Dates: What’s safe for kids during the COVID-19 summer? University of Chicago Medicine.
