CHRISTMAS DAY IN THE HOSPITAL

Whether as a patient or an employee, spending Christmas Day, Hanukkah nights or Kwanza in the hospital can feel difficult at a time when we would much rather be celebrating this festive season with family, friends and loved ones as we long anticipated and expected.

If you would like copies of any of these articles, or if you would like further information on this topic, please contact any Library staff member.

"Christmas time 100 years ago in the BJN." British Journal of Nursing, 17(22), 1415, 2008.
