BEWARE OF SUMMER HAZARDS

Summer is typically filled with fun in the sun activities. However, health hazards unique to this time of year are often encountered. Dehydration, sunburn, recreational injuries, food poisoning, and insect bites are among some of the adverse effects of this fun filled time of year. If you would like copies of any of these articles, or if you would like further information on this topic, please contact any library staff member.

